

1847. Monday May 31. — Boston.

In enclosing the within, my dear Mr. Estlin, I have time only to add that I hope you ^{have} rec'd. my letter by 1st May Steamship; also, a parcel of pamphlets, sent to Liverpool by a passenger in that ship, instead of going by the 5th May Packer-ship, as I supposed it would. That packer-ship, the Anglo Saxon (a very fine ship) was lost near Cape Sable, Nova Scotia, a few days out. No lives lost, but a total loss of ship, cargo, &c.

Dr. Dewey resigned his office as President of Am. Unitⁿ. Assocⁿ., giving as a reason ~~the~~ the distance, at which he lives, from the headquarters of operations. —

My new office — I feel I shall have your warm sympathy in it — will bring me to reside in or near Boston probably; — i.e. by next Autumn. Meantime I shall be in the City much of the time.

We learn today of the death — quite sudden — of Rev. Dr. W. B. C. Peabody of Springfield.

Respectfully Yours

Same May.
